ABOUT

The Center for Intentional Leadership

The Center for Intentional Leadership is a consulting firm committed to the development of leaders, teams, and organizational cultures. The firm's approach is centered in the assertion that high performing organizations are the product of a compelling purpose, effective leaders, engaged and committed employees, and a clear, aligned focus on results. Clients of the firm range from Fortune 500 corporations to small businesses, as well as non-profit, municipal, and civic organizations.

WHY

INTENTIONAL LEADERSHIP?

As leaders become more experienced, overreliance on past strengths and approaches can limit growth and effectiveness. Intentional Leadership® reveals self-limiting habits and perspectives to allow for more connected, more purposeful and a more rewarding experience of leadership.

This program will challenge the way you think about your professional and personal life and ultimately create new ways of thinking and behaving to achieve powerful results.
